

Cal OES
GOVERNOR'S OFFICE
OF EMERGENCY SERVICES

Southern Region Speakers Series:
Building Trust & Leading through Effective Crisis Communication Skills

Tuesday, April 28TH, 2015
10:00 AM – 12:00 PM
Joint Forces Training Base
(Veterans Center, Building # 244)
Los Alamitos

GUEST SPEAKER:

Kelly Huston
Cal OES – Deputy Director
Crisis Communications and Public Affairs

Kelly Huston was appointed by Governor Brown as director for Crisis Communications and Public Affairs at Cal OES. Huston has been with Cal OES since 2008, when the office was known as the California Emergency Management Agency. He was assistant deputy director at the Governor's Office of Homeland Security in 2005 and served as commander of public affairs at the California Highway Patrol from 2004 to 2005. Huston was legislative affairs and media relations manager at Stanislaus County from 2000 to 2004 and held multiple positions at the City of Modesto Police Department from 1989 to 2000.

Please note: You will need to show identification to enter the Joint Forces Training Base. Enter on Lexington Drive. As you cross through the gate, the Veterans Center (Building 244) will be the first building immediately on the left.

Please RSVP to:
Jeanne Garcia at
Jeanne.garcia@caloes.ca.gov
Or call 562.795.2935